

Serial	Item	Description
1.	Title	: Monga in Greater Rangpur: Intensity, Coping, Vulnerability, and the Impact of Mitigating Strategies (01)
2.	Institution and rights	: Institute for Inclusive Finance and Development (InM)
3.	Period of data collection	: 2008
4.	Sample size	: 480918 households from 5 districts (Lalmonirhat, Kurigram, Nilphamari, Rangpur, Gaibandha).
5.	Indicators	: Age, household size, adult male & female worker, land, main occupation, house material, monga period daily meal, affected by monga, agricultural equipment, transport, business, invested in industry, invested in fish cultivation, MFI membership, individual loan outstanding & amount, institutional loan outstanding & amount, savings, VGD, pension, relief, livestock and poultry, advance labor sold, assets sold, migration during monga, support received (food, cash, cloth, housing equipment, livestock) during monga, informal loan, PKSF PO membership, other NGO membership, access to formal credit, electricity, solar electricity, cultivated land, non-cultivated land, crop, drinking water, toilet, interest rate, child labor, male labor, female labor, poverty status, coping strategy,
6.	File	: Data file, final report, questionnaire
7.	File Format	: Stata
8.	Language	: English