

Serial	Item	Description
1.	Title	: Urban Microfinance in Bangladesh (04)
2.	Institution and rights	: Institute for Inclusive Finance and Development (InM)
3.	Period of data collection	: January, 2010
4.	Sample size	: 2,593 MFI member households and 1,000 control households from 13 urban areas (Dhaka, Chittagong, Khulna, Rajshahi, Barisal, Sylhet, Rangpur, Dinajpur, Bogra, Kushtia, Comilla, Brahmanbaria, and Mymensingh)
5.	Indicators	: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Information of microcredit clients of different MFIs<ul style="list-style-type: none">- General information (Age, sex, years of schooling, primary and secondary occupation, distance between residence and occupation, average monthly income, home ownership, household owned land, type of housing, year of living, community population etc.)- Community and savings group information (reason for leaving if anyone has left MFIs, no. of MFIs working in the locality, percentage of HH who are non-NGO members and reason for non-membership)- Information on microcredit Involvement (information about first loan and present loan including name of NGO/s attached, joining year, no. of loan borrowed, amount of savings, monthly savings, loan received, no. of installment, installment type, installment size, pay-back period, purpose, success in percentage)- Impact of microfinance (Income source, working hours per day, household previous total income, insecurity in terms of income, value of assets, housing materials used, health facility received, sanitation condition, source of drinking water, utility services, clothing, food intake, training, women empowerment, impact on dependent children)- Information on other aspects (potential entrepreneurship, amount needed for the venture (Tk), profit per month (Tk) etc.)• Non-MFI members<ul style="list-style-type: none">- General Information (Age, sex, years of schooling, primary and secondary occupation, distance between residence and occupation, average monthly income, home ownership, household owned land, type of housing, year of living, community population etc.)- Information on involvement with loan & insurance (sources of money (informal sources, bank loan, personal savings), aware about insurance, have any insurance etc.)- Changes in socioeconomic situation in last five years (income source, working hours per day, household total income, insecurity in terms of income, value of assets, housing materials used, health facility received, sanitation condition, source of drinking water, utility services, clothing, food intake, training, women empowerment, impact on dependent children)- Information on others (potential entrepreneurship, amount needed for the venture (Tk), profit per month (Tk) etc.)
6.	File	: MFI members; non-MFI members
7.	File Format	: Stata & SPSS
8.	Language	: English