

Institute for Inclusive Finance and Development (InM)

Serial	Item	Description
1	Title:	Developing and Implementing Inclusive Insurance in Bangladesh
2	Institution and rights:	Institute for Inclusive Finance and Development (InM) and JICA
3	Period of data collection:	Dec 2016 to Jan 2017
4	Sample size:	1008 households from 48 villages in 6 districts (Patuakhali, Satkhira, Cox's Bazar, Sunamganj, Jamalpur and Kurigram) and 43 Health care facilities centers (Govt. and Private Hospitals)
5	Indicators:
	General Information	Detailed information about the geographical location of the household (e.g., district, upazila, union, village), name of the respondent, housing condition, water and sanitation facilities, distance of the households from basic facilities (e.g., distance from hospital).
	Household roster	A list of all members of the household including their age and gender
	Education	Information about level of education for each member of the household
	Occupation and employment	Occupation and employment situation for each member of the household.
	Income	This will gather information about each earning member of the household as well as income from other sources (remittances, government benefitsetc).
	Assets	Ownership of assets in terms of cash savings, other productive and non-productive assets of the household
	Consumption expenditure	Expenditure data will be collected under two broad heads: food and non-food. Expenses for non-food consumption will be collected under different sub-heads including costs of maintenance of residence, health, education, transport, communication, entertainment, etc.
	Housing condition	Entitlements, types of house, electricity, hygiene, sanitation, water source, etc.

Incidence of death in the household	Information about occurrence of death over the last few years. Information about each deceased person (e.g. age, occupation, gender) and reasons for death will be gathered. The information will be used for constructing proxymortality tables and of probability of death.
Incidence of illness in the household	Illness profile for each household member containing information about incidence of disease related shocks. The information will be used for constructing proxy morbidity table.
Access to credit	Information about availability of credit from banks and MFIs. Information about their present level of indebtedness and creditworthiness.
Access to savings	Access to formal saving instruments
Knowledge and perception about insurance	Whether heard about insurance, if yes source of information; What is the perception about insurance (positive/negative); If negative perception, why?
Access to insurance	Information about present level of access to formal insurance services (e.g., life, livestock, health, property)
Willingness to join for health insurance	Preparing a basic health insurance package and asking about willingness to join.
Willingness to join property insurance	Preparing a basic property insurance package and asking about willingness to join.
Health provider survey	Assessing whether the existing health facilities in nearby areas are capable of providing services for the insured and asking the health providers whether they are willing to provide services for the insured.

- 6 File: Data file, final report, questionnaire
- 7 File Format: Stata
- 8 Language: English