

Brief on Building Workplace Attitude and Values for Enhancing Organisational Commitment

Duration: 2 Days

Language: English

Course Brief:

This course is designed to indoctrinate the employees to bathe them in the institution's culture to cultivate their commitment to the organisation, its mission and its clients, and to learn and practice especially the social skills needed to perform their jobs. To retain quality staff members and to ensure that they grow and develop as the organisation evolves, it is necessary to undergo with this type of training to upkeep the staff morals so that they become a good team player and get motivated to retain in the job and above all own the organisation.

Target Participants:

Target participants are Mid-level to Senior Level staff including Branch Managers, Programme Managers, Programme Coordinators of MFIs.

Course Objectives:

After completion of the programme, participants will be able to:

- UNDERSTAND importance of positive attitude.
- BUILD positive self-esteem to be a good team player.
- MOTIVATE employees and make them enthusiastic about their work.
- DEVELOP institutional culture that is unique so that employees feel they are the part of the organisation.
- CREATE values and vision to make a difference.

